I’m watching as many girl blogs as I can, and as I’ve said before, I usually find them endearing. That said, I do NOT appreciate reading through all these little things that make me feel just plain old sad and crazy. I like to believe that I’m pretty well balanced, but boy, lately, I’m struggling with the need to stay distant from one of my close friends. It’s a small thing, and I think everyone is aware of it, but I still can’t get over the feeling that I’m the one who has to change. When she was really small, I would buy her the exact same present year after year. Now, that’s just not the case. I may buy her a new toy each year, but I don’t feel that I can buy
